

CHAR	HOW TO TYPE	WHAT IT'S CALLED	CHAR	HOW TO TYPE	WHAT IT'S CALLED
‘	option -]	left single curly quote	’	option - shift-e	foot mark
’	option - shift -]	right single curly quote	“	option - shift-g	inch mark
“	option - [left double curly quote	¶	option - 7	paragraph sign
”	option - shift - [right double curlyquote	•	option - shift - 8	bullet
†	option - t	dagger	·	option - shift - 9	middle dot
...	option - ;	ellipsis	¸	option - shift - z	cedilla
‰	option - shift - r	per mill sign
™	option - 2	trademark sign
–	option - hyphen	en dash
—	option - shift -hyphen	em dash
§	option - 6	section sign
©	option - g	copyright
«	option - \	left angle quote
¬	option - l	not sign
®	option - r	registered trademark
°	option - shift - 8	degree sign
±	option - shift - =	plus or minus
´	option - e	acute accent **
è	option - `	grave accent  (shown on an e)
ê	option - i	circumflex accent  (shown on an e)
ë	option - u	umlaut  (shown on an e)
ñ	option - n	tilde  (shown on an n)
μ	option - m	micro sign “mu”
»	option - shift - \	right angle quote
¿	option - shift - ?	inverted question mark
Æ	option - shift - ‘	uppercase AE
Ç	option - shift - c	uppercase C, cedilla
Ø	option - shift - o	uppercase O, slash
ø	option - o	lowercase o, slash
ß	option - s	lowercase sharps, German
¡	option - 1	inverted exclamation
¢	option - 4	cent sign
£	option - 3	pound sterling
¥	option - y	yen sign
€	option - shift - 2	Euro Symbol; you need to be using a font that supports it; Times New Roman works.

Type this key combination and nothing appears to happen;
type one more letter and that one gets the accent!